MUSA HAS NEW BABY SISTER, LOVES HER TO BITS!

He didn't know babies were this cute!

Musa Rashid, 9, of Birmingham is the most blessed boy in town as of 4.26pm today, when his brand new baby sister joined him in the world.

Mother and baby are both very well and looking forward to coming home from the hospital.

"I can't wait till she's a bit bigger so I can play football with her." said Musa.

Dr Mohamed Brown, child psychologist and author of 'Life Gets Better With Siblings,' says, 'Siblings know you better than anyone. They'll always be intensely interested in you. If you ask a sibling to describe a parent, a friend or a sibling, it is the sibling that the child will describe with most detail, in terms of their character and habits. This is why they are so important and great to have around.'

The happy parents of the siblings said, "We are over the moon and truly blessed."

The family have named their new baby, Sofia. She already seems to have chosen her brother as her favourite.
