SIX YEAR OLD COMPLETES QUR'AN

Girl astonishes world with speedy accomplishment

Aisha, 6, of London, has made her parents proud by completing a reading of the Qur'an from front to back.

The Qur'an is written in Arabic. Translations in English and all other languages are also available. It consists of 30 parts and 114 chapters called surahs.

Aisha began to learn to read the Qur'an at a young age and always showed a great love for the words of Allah. The young girl has also memorised several surahs.

Proud mother, Nadia, said, "This is a great moment of joy for the whole family."

Gifts were presented and hugs shared in a wonderful celebration at the Malik household.

"She loves reciting it! She would do it every day without prompts from us!" says Aisha's father, displaying undeniable admiration.
